Students and Parents please read statements below:

- Student is responsible for paying all costs (tuition, fees, textbooks, supplies, or instructional software) associated with taking dual credit course(s) unless otherwise stated by high school.
- Student must have written permission from the high school counselor before he/she can withdraw from a dual credit course.
- All grades including withdrawal "WX" will become a part of student's permanent college transcript.
- Academic Freedom allows faculty and students to pursue relevant course content that may be adult in nature.
- Complete rules and regulations, including FERPA may be found in the College of the Mainland Catalog and College of the Mainland Student Handbook.

I have read and understand the statements above and give my child permission to enroll in Dual Credit at College of the Mainland.
