

Cassandra
Dillon BIO

Cassandra Dillon Clark, ASP, MS, CESCO, SHEP, CSSM, COSM has over 30 years' experience in the fields of industrial engineering, environmental, risk management, occupational safety and health. She holds a B.S. in Industrial Engineering from Louisiana State University and a M.S in Risk Control/Safety Engineering from the University of Wisconsin - Stout. In addition, she is an OSHA Authorized trainer in both General Industry and Construction.

In industry as a consultant, she provides comprehensive support to companies in the areas of logistics, warehousing/distribution, supply chain, manufacturing, oil and gas. As an Adjunct Professor, she lectures in the areas of emergency planning, environmental systems, logistics, engineering, risk management, safety, and petroleum technology. In addition, she is a NCCER Craft Instructor and Performance Evaluator.

Furthermore, she serves as a member of the Injury Prevention and Public Education Committee- Texas Governor's EMS and Trauma Advisory Council (GETAC). Finally, her hobbies include volunteering in the community with Community Emergency Response Team (CERT), Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and other organizations that impact the safety of the community.