Welcome to College of the Mainland Music

The music faculty at COM are delighted in your decision to consider attending the music program at COM. Please browse the web site to learn more about the music program. www.com.edu/music and www.com.edu/finearts

Due to uncertainties regarding COVID-19, your audition may be submitted via video recording.

In the event of a virtual audition, your video will be reviewed by an audition panel. Additionally, you may be contacted by the applied instructor regarding a possible Zoom follow up to occur on your selected audition date or at an arranged time.

Requirements for submission of your audition video.

- Announce your name and title of your piece clearly / slowly enough to be heard.
- Face the camera as you would face an audience, have a full body view.
- Video should be recorded in a neutral room.
- Videos recorded in bedrooms, bathrooms, or cars are NOT acceptable.
- Make sure the lighting in the room is bright enough for the panel to see you clearly.
- Dress in the way that you would for a job interview or attend a special school event.

Audition Videos should be submitted by March 30, 2021.

In person auditions will be April 3, 2021.

Audition Requirements:

Vocal: Accompanied singing of scales

　　　Piece of vocal music in any style, accompanied or recorded accompaniment (accompanist provided with prior notification).

Guitar: Guitar (classical or electric with pick or fingers)

　　　Two contrasting pieces from different eras.

　　　Major scales in two positions and a short sight - reading piece.

Piano: Two Contrasting Pieces

Instrumental: Major Scales, Chromatic, Etudes / Solos – student must perform a solo from the Texas UIL Prescribed list (one fast and one slow)

Questions: Should you have any question regarding audition requirements contact:

　　　Vocal: James Heffel jheffel@com.edu 409.933.8200

　　　Piano: Paul Boyd pboyd@com.edu 409.933.342

　　　Guitar: John Kiefer jkiefer@com.edu 409.933.8545

　　　Instrumental: Sparky Koerner skoerner@com.edu 409.933.8347

　　　Fine Arts Office: 409.933.8348